

Networking with Chemistry Professionals & Younger Chemists

A Virtual Event, Sunday, September 12, 2021, 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm EDT

The Senior Chemists Committee is partnering with the Younger Chemists Committee, the Undergraduates Program Advisory Board, and the ACS Business Development and Management Division to host this fall's "Networking with Chemistry Professionals & Younger Chemists"

Panelists:

- Kelley Cafilin, Lead Analytical Chemist in the Explosives Research Branch at the United States Army Combat Capabilities Development Command Armaments Center
- Tejas Shah, Research Investigator at Corteva Agriscience
- Barry Streusand, Owner of Applied Analytical, Inc. and former Professor at Texas State University
- Dominique Williams, Professor of Biochemistry at the University of Richmond.

We encourage undergraduates, graduates, and younger chemistry professionals to register and join us for this free event. Professionals from industry, academia, government, and all other corners of chemistry are encouraged to join us. Come share your expertise and experiences with our younger colleagues. For more information on how to get involved, please send an email to seniorchemists@acs.org.

Registration for the event is free – the first 25 to register will receive a treat!
