

Held at Columbia College Chicago

GLOBAL IMPACT OF TROPICAL DISEASES IN THE MODERN WORLD: THE HAITI EXPERIENCE

A lecture by Dr. Lane Sid Rolling

Monday, April 6
5:00 p.m.
Lecture Hall 203
623 S. Wabash

This event is free and open to the public.

DR. LANE SID ROLLING, MD., is the director of Clinical Education, Hospital Regional Clinical San Jose, Cusco, Peru. Dr. Rolling lectures as a distinguished faculty lecturer at many universities about tropical pathology and global infectious disease, as well as about his experiences in clinical medicine in Peru, Honduras, Ecuador and Dominican Republic. Dr. Rolling was appointed as Professor of Clinical Medicine and Surgery at the Universidad Particular de Iquitos in 2008.

Sponsored by the "Committee on Minority Affairs" of the Chicago Section-American Chemical Society, Dr. Charles E. Cannon, Chair

Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies

